WEB GEMS START WITH LOT #1578

MARCH 11, 2021
THE FOREMOST IN AUTOGRAPH AUTHENTICATION

MAXIMIZE THE VALUE OF YOUR SIGNED MEMORABILIA
Auction Rules

Welcome to Huggins and Scott Auctions, the Nation’s fastest growing Sports & Americana Auction House. With this catalog, we are presenting another extensive list of sports cards and memorabilia, plus an array of historically significant Americana items. We hope you enjoy this.

VERY IMPORTANT: Due to size constraints and the cost factor in the print version of most catalogs, we are unable to include all pictures and elaborate descriptions on every single lot in the auction. However, our website has no limitations, so we have added many more photos and a much more elaborate description on virtually every item on our website. Well worth checking out if you are serious about a lot!
WEBSITE: WWW. HUGGINSANDSCOTT.COM

Here’s how we are running our March 11, 2021 auction:

BIDDING BEGINS:
Friday February 26, 2021 at 12:00pm Eastern Time

We describe and photograph each item in the most clear and easy to understand way possible. However, WE LOVE QUESTIONS! Call us anytime at 301-608-0355. Always leave a message if you get our machine. It’s always the first thing we check everyday.

REGISTRATION:

You must pre-register to bid. You can do this over the phone at 301-608-0355 or online at www.hugginsandscott.com. Should you choose the online method and have any problems, please call us for assistance. Our normal business hours are Monday-Friday 10-6pm EST. Weekends by appointment only.

Once registered you will need to confirm your email address by following the link in the confirmation email that is automatically sent to your email address that you register with. At the time of registration, you will create a User ID and Password, that you are responsible for; you will use that same User ID and Password every time you log into our site for this and all future auctions. Bidding is done online or by telephone. ALL TIMES ARE EASTERN TIME

3-STEP BIDDING PROCESS:

STEP 1) Initial Bids

NOTE: our countdown clock on each lot is synchronized by Network Time Protocol to eastern time. The clock is set to reach 0d 0h 0m 0s at 11:30pm eastern time, which is when the lot would end if no additional bids are placed on the lot. If you have not bid on the lot, you will need to place your first bid by the time the countdown clock reaches 0d 1h 30m 0s. If you have any questions, please ask in advance!

You must place an acceptable, initial bid on an item by 10:00 pm on the night the item ends, in order to proceed to STEP 2. A way to check if your bid was accepted is to go to “My Bid List”. If the item you bid on is listed there, you are in. You can now sort your bid list by which lots you hold the current high bid for, and which lots you have been outbid on. If YOU HAVE NOT PLACED A BID ON AN ITEM BEFORE 10:00 pm EST (on the night the item ends), YOU CANNOT BID ON THAT ITEM AFTER 10:00 pm EST, in the extended bidding session (STEP 2). However, at 10:00 pm on March 11th, if you are the only bidder on an item that ends that day, that item will close and you will be declared the winner. We cannot stress enough; you will want to get your bids in early. For example, once you get your catalog, if you were to place a bid (even if you get outbid by another bidder) on every item that you are interested in, you are good to go and will be allowed to bid at the end of the auction, without the possibility of being shutout.

STEP 2) Extended Bidding Session

Between 10:00 pm and 11:00 pm is our “extended bidding session”. This period of bidding is getting you ready for the end. You are welcome to continue placing bids on any item that you have previously bid on, but you may not jump in on a new item during this time.

STEP 3) Unique Auction Ending Style

Now adopted by most major auction houses; You’re Welcome! Years ago, for some unknown reason, most other auction houses adopted the procedure to end entire auctions all at one time. Our way is much more bidder friendly. Here’s how it works: Bidders have our catalog for roughly two weeks prior to the auction’s end, giving them ample opportunity to place an initial bid before 10:00 pm on the item’s end date. Lots will then begin closing at 11:00pm on their respective end date. If only one bid has been received and the clock strikes 10:00pm, the lot will officially close and the lone bidder will be declared the winner. If there have been two or more bids on a particular item, that item will remain open until 30 minutes have passed without any additional bids on that item. A 30-minute timer is provided for each lot and will be automatically reset every time a new bid is made on that lot. If you up your own high bid in the last 30-minutes, the 30-minute clock will NOT reset. This is now available in real time on our website. You will want to hit the “REFRESH” button on your computer as the clock counts down, as our system will not automatically show an increase in bids. Bids on items will continue to be accepted between 10:00 pm and 11:00 pm from any bidder that has bid on the item prior to 10:00 pm (Extended Bidding Session). Based on these rules, no lot with two or more bids prior to 10:00 pm can close prior to 11:30 pm ET.

MORE IMAGES AND DETAILED DESCRIPTIONS AVAILABLE ON OUR WEBSITE: WWW.HUGGINSANDSCOTT.COM
This format accomplishes two very bidder-friendly things: it pre-bids the auction to close.

If Bidder A was the only bidder on Lot 420 at 10:00 pm, he may result in the revocation of bidding privileges for future auctions. Only extenuating circumstances will be considered. If Bidder A was the high bidder on Lot 420. If no one else bids before 11:30 pm, Bidder A will win the auction. If, however, Bidder B bids again at 11:27 pm, the new end time for Lot 420 is 11:30 pm, giving Bidder A another 30 minutes to raise his bid. No other auction lots are affected by A & B’s bidding on Lot 420.

b) If Bidder A was the only bidder on Lot 420 at 10:00 pm, he automatically wins the lot at 11:00 pm.

This format accomplishes two very bidder-friendly things: it prevents snipers, as once you bid the clock resets for 30 minutes even if you bid with 1 second left. Also, it allows people to know they have won an item without having to wait for every item in the auction to close.

We are sure that once you read and use this bidder-friendly Auction Ending style, you’ll appreciate, as we do, that it is just “a better mousetrap.” However should you have any questions about this procedure, PLEASE call us: 301-608-0355.

A few examples for those of you that may not understand:

a) If an item has an opening bid of $200 and does not have a bid, you can click on the drop box and have the option at bidding $200, $210, $220, $230, $240, $250, $275, $300, $325, $350, $375, $400, $425, $450, $475, $500, $525, $550, $575, $600, $625 and so on.

b) If an item’s bid currently stands at $1800, your options for bidding are $1900, $2000, $2100, $2200, $2300, $2400, $2500, $2600, $2700 up to $10,000 and then $10,250, $10,500 and so on.

Let’s say an item currently stands at $750. You enter a max bid of $850 and the system comes back and says that you’ve been outbid and the current bid is now $850. Simply, this means that the other bidder’s max was also $850, that they placed BEFORE YOU PLACED YOUR BID, and one more bid will make you the current high bidder. You can enter the next acceptable bid of $875 and you will be the current high bid.

PAYMENT OPTIONS
We accept personal checks, business checks, money orders, bank checks, wire transfers and cash. We WILL accept Paypal for auction items (click “PAY NOW” on your invoice). CREDIT CARDS ONLY ACCEPTED THROUGH PAYPAL FOR AUCTION WINNINGS!

FOLLOWING THE AUCTION
We will send winning bidders an email as well as written invoices the week following the auction. Payment is requested within 15 days from the end of the auction. Extremely late or non-payments may result in the revocation of bidding privileges for future auctions. Please note: when you bid on an item, you are entering a legally binding contract, indicating that you will pay for your items, plus the buyers’ premium and any additional associated fees (sales tax, shipping, insurance, collection agency fees, etc...). You are responsible for any and all bids placed with your User ID and password. We WILL sell your debt to a collection agency if you fail to make payment.

NOTE: Our consignment contract gives the consignor the option at withdrawing his items from the sale if they have not been paid for within 90 days of the end of the auction. If you, the winning bidder, do not pay your invoice in full within 60 days of the end of the auction, we can void your purchase(s) and return the items to the consignor. You will also be responsible for all legal fees and collection fees incurred by Huggins and Scott in attempt to obtain payment from you. We will not only revoke your bidding privileges, but we can also release the details of the failed transaction to other major auction houses.

MORE ABOUT OUR AUCTION
1) All items are sold AS IS to the highest bidder

2) Buyer’s Premium and Sales Tax - Please note our BUYERS PREMIUM is 23% of the hammer price. This means if an item sells for $1000, the winning bidder will pay ($1230.00 plus shipping, handling and insurance). This is added to the item before any sales tax (6%), which is applicable to all Maryland residents ONLY! Note: a 3% Buyer’s Premium discount for all payments by check, cash, money order or wire transfer.

3) No one who is currently employed with Huggins and Scott or House of Cards may bid on any items in any Huggins and Scott Auctions. However, the auction house and its employees may consign items to the auction.

4) “Items With Reserves” feature slightly modified! We have expanded and modified the “items with reserves” feature for this auction. Now, the items with reserves are noted with a red outline around the lot and the words “ITEM WITH RESERVE” heading above the lot. They will also appear in the appropriate category section based on the item. The reason we have started this is to allow us to offer more unique and special items, while also giving our consignors the assurance that the items will at least reach a certain minimum. All items with reserves will have an opening bid and an estimated value range.

The reserve bid on any item will never be greater than the low value in the estimated range. By starting the bidding below the reserve price it will allow our bidders to get their initial bids in prior to the 10:00pm cutoff time for “initial bids” on the final day of the auction and then all eligible bidders can decide what they want their final bid to be on that day. The items will have a statement in the bid box on our website saying either “Reserve Not Met” or “Reserve Met”. Those two phrases should be self-explanatory. If you are entering a ceiling bid on one of these items and your ceiling bid exceeds the reserve, the computer will only take your ceiling bid exceeds the reserve, the computer will only take you to the value that equals the reserve. The remaining amount of your ceiling bid will be kept hidden to everyone but you. If the item ends with the “reserve not met” the item will be deemed “passed” with a zero sale price. We are trying to make this a simple and easy-to-understand feature in our auction; should you have any questions, concerns or comments on this new venture, we welcome your feedback.

5) Shipping - Cost is the buyer’s responsibility. We will work with you on larger lots to find the best way. All items must be fully paid for, including shipping and insurance, before they will be sent out. We strongly encourage any local bidders to pick up their winnings at our Office or at the House of Cards.
International bidders should contact us prior to sending payment to discuss specific shipping options.

6) Return Policy - ALL LEGITIMATE RETURNS OR CREDIT REQUESTS MUST BE BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTION WITHIN 30 DAYS OF RECEIPT OF YOUR ITEMS! AFTER 30 DAYS, THERE ARE NO REFUNDS, EXCHANGES OR CREDITS! ALSO, THE ENTIRE LOT MUST BE INTACT AND IN THE SAME FORM AS WHEN IT WAS SOLD IN ORDER TO RECEIVE ANY CREDIT OR REFUND CONSIDERATIONS - NO EXCEPTIONS!! We have conservatively graded most items, however we strongly encourage you to ask specific questions or better yet, come view the items you are interested in. If you are unsure of anything, ask, then bid. We reserve the right to make any changes from the print catalog on our website. Any changes that are made, we will notify all who have placed bids on that item by email.

7) Bidding Privileges - Huggins and Scott LLC reserves the right to revoke any bidder privileges for what we deem as unethical behavior.

PLEASE NOTE: Once a bid is placed, we CANNOT retract it. We have two safeguards to make sure that you are aware of the bid that you are placing, and which lot you are bidding on. Bid retraction will result in cancellation of all bids in the auction and bidding privileges revoked. WE CANNOT COMPROMISE THE INTEGRITY OF THE AUCTION BY CANCELING BIDS.

8) Previewing Items Before the Auction - All items are available (unless noted in the item's online description) for viewing at our auction office: 2301 Broadbirch Dr. Ste 150, Silver Spring, MD 20904. Calling in advance for an appointment is strongly SUGGESTED. We ask that you provide a list of the items that you want to examine, so we may have them ready for you.

9) All bids are in US Dollars!

10) When we refer to a population report about graded cards, we only reference the population of that card's grading company. For example, if we say an SGC card has three equals and none better, we are only referring to that card's population among all SGC graded cards, unless otherwise stated. All population counts are valid as of the time of writing and are subject to change.

About Our Autographs:
All autographs sold thru Huggins & Scott Auctions come with either a JSA- James Spence Authentication (our most used), PSA/DNA, Upper Deck Authenticated (UDA), Stacks of Plaques, Kevin Keating, Mounted Memories, C.A.S., Beckett or Steiner COA's. Some even have more than one. At Huggins & Scott, we take great pride in only offering “IRONCLAD”, “LEAD PIPE”, “NO QUESTIONS ASKED” autographs. In today's world of autopens, secretarial, clubhouse and ghost signers, you can rest assured that your autographed items from H&S have passed the most stringent examination.

Note: For those that do not know, a “clubhouse” signature was a common practice among teams where the key players would not actually sign the item, but a clubhouse attendant would sign for the player. We note any signature that is a clubhouse signature.

Multiple Autographed Item Lot LOA's:
For the more valuable autographs, we are obtaining full photograph LOA's from one of the respected third party authentication companies. For the lesser valued items, we are having those items authenticated and noted with a unique sticker/certificate combination for each item. In the remaining cases, on lots with more than one autographed item, we will issue one blanket auction letter of authenticity for the entire lot (although we are trying to do away with this altogether, but sometimes it is the only cost effective method). This is the original letter that we receive from the authentication company describing the offered lot. You may use this “auction” LOA to obtain individual LOA's should you chose to do that, however the auction LOA's are only valid for 45 days from the end of the auction. Please see the item’s description for specific authentication on each individual lot.

Please call if you have any questions regarding these auction lot LOA's.

MLB Authentication:
Due to the MLB Authentication protocol, many items that were in fact game used and verified as such by team personnel, are deemed “Team Issued” on the MLB Authentication website with numbers corresponding to those on holograms issued by MLB. While we will remain consistent with MLB’s assessments in our descriptions, several of these items are game worn as well as team issued; and they have varying degrees of use, from light to heavy.

Framed Items:
Frames included with lots: while we make every effort to protect the frames included in these lots during pre auction storage and post auction shipping, we are not responsible for any damage to the frames themselves, and no refunds will be given due to frame damage.

About Our Grading:
Many lots, throughout the auction have been Professionally graded and encapsulated by independent grading companies. Many other lots have been graded by our highly educated writers. For the most part, these are conservative grades, but we are human and sometimes we may miss something. We are not responsible for a third party grading company agreeing or disagreeing with our assessment and we cannot issue refunds or credits if cards do not receive a numerical grade or the exact grade that we describe. We strongly recommend that you come look at any items that you are bidding on, and make your own determination about it’s grade.

Becoming one of Our Field Representatives:
Huggins and Scott Auctions is a constantly growing company. Should you have an interest in joining our staff, we are always looking for part-time field representatives in new areas. Call our head of Field Representatives, Steve Dickler at 215-530-4365 to discuss an opportunity; its a no lose situation for you, as well as a chance to make some serious money.

Consignments For Our Next Auction:
We have already begun taking consignments for our SUMMER 2021 Masterpiece Auction. Consignment deadline: LATE APRIL 2021. By consigning your items early, you allow us the opportunity to advertise your items on our website, in trade publications and press releases, as well as at major shows across the country. This is an invaluable way to expose your items to our thousands of current bidders and possible new bidders, who can then plan ahead to bid on your items. Believe me, it happens!

We are always looking for unique Americana items to try in our catalog. Even if you have something you don’t see (primarily 1960s and older, though), feel free to call us and discuss it. You may have a pile of gold that’s just hidden under a little dust, or needs the right exposure!

ALSO: We are the best major catalog auction company for newer modern insert, relic and autographed cards. Virtually every consignor has been pleased with the results for their “Shiny Cards” through our auction.

Contact one of our representatives to discuss the sale or consignments of your cards and other treasures.

1. 1950s Ted Williams Boston Red Sox Game-Worn Wool Jacket Gifted to Teammate Joe Dobson - Phil Wood LOA

Teddy Ballgame’s jerseys regularly reach the auction block and have sold for as much as $175,000. But his BoSox warm-up jackets? Exponentially rarer. To our knowledge, only three other examples have ever surfaced publicly—all of which were inferior to this beauty. Here’s why: Those predecessors may likewise have featured Williams’ number “9,” yet none carried his legendary name as this one does. How much more iron-clad can you get than that? Yes, inside the left pocket is the pièce de résistance: a 2-1/2” x 1” felt swatch that’s actually chain-stitched “Williams.” In the collar, meanwhile, you have a 3-1/2” x 2-3/4” swatch that’s double-stamped with his immortal “9.” What’s more, the manufacturer (McAuliffe) and size (50) are spot on for Williams’ 1950s era. Finally, the origin story is perfectly credible, as detailed in an accompanying 2005 LOA from the first buyer, whose Florida business was located 2 hours from Dobson’s home, and who writes, “I purchased this jacket from former Boston Red Sox pitcher Joe Dobson around 1990.”

Armed with all this evidence, expert authenticator Phil Wood has the confidence to conclude, “The provenance of this garment seems rock solid to me...I would consider this a museum quality piece, connected to one of the game’s literal all time greats. It’s the real thing.” Earlier in his LOA, Wood addresses the Dobson angle: “Having had the opportunity to speak with several of Williams’ former teammates over the years, a benefit of my career as a radio TV sportscaster, it was not unusual for Ted to give a teammate a bat, or some other piece of his own equipment when they were traded elsewhere or retired. Dobson’s stay with the BoSox in 1954 was brief and his career was over at that point. I can’t state this as fact, but I suspect that Dobson was given this jacket on his way out the door. He sold the jacket to a collector in 1990, and died in 1994.”

Need more proof? There’s also the fact that Williams and Dobson had a long Fenway history together. In 1941, after two lackluster years in Cleveland, the 24-year-old right-hander arrived in Boston and turned his career around thanks in part to the Kid’s help. As SABR biographer Bill Nowlin recounts, “Equally important [to Dobson’s success] may have been Ted Williams, who had hurt his foot and wanted to take some extra batting practice to help him come back. He asked Joe to throw to him and in the one-on-one pitching repeatedly to a .400 hitter, Joe may have become better able to harness his pitches and develop his control. Author Peter Golenbock added: ‘They would pretend it was a real game, and Dobson would throw his best. By the time he returned to the Boston lineup as an everyday performer, Williams’ batting skills were honed and sharp.’” Little surprise, then, that after more than a decade as teammates and friends, Ted would impart such a special gift upon Joe’s departure.

Excellent condition with a small repair on the left sleeve. LOAs from the Florida buyer and from Phil Wood.

Opening Bid $5000.00
2. Ultra-Rare Pete Rose 1979 Philadelphia Phillies “Saturday Night Special” One-Game-Style Complete Signed Uniform - Phil Wood and Consignor LOAs

In Hans Christian Anderson’s folktale “The Emperor’s New Clothes,” a famous leader publicly embarrasses himself with a fashion faux pas; nearly all of his royal subjects act as if there’s nothing wrong; and even when the truth does come out, the Emperor proudly marches on anyway with his head held high.

Not so with the Phillies’ “Saturday Night Special” uniforms. No, what happened on May 19, 1979, was more like the prom scene in Carrie—the poor Phils wore uniforms that looked like they’d been doused with buckets of pig’s blood...and then everyone laughed at them. Rather than soldier on with the plan to don those all-burgundy unis every Saturday night, Greg Luzinski threatened to go play for another franchise, and the whole team tossed their new duds in a trash heap on the locker-room floor, where, according to Larry Christenson, “Our clubhouse attendant gathered them together and put them into a laundry cart that was pushed into Never Never Land.” (In actuality, we now know they were individually sold to collectors.)

All this to say two important things about the “Saturday Night Special” experiment. First, it’s become synonymous with tasteless sports fashion and has been infamously ridiculed in listicles for over 40 years. Second, its ephemeral single-night usage has made for one of the rarest and most desirable of all modern-era uniform styles. Case in point: In 2017, Phillies pitcher Dick Ruthven’s SNS jersey sold at auction for almost $10,000. Yes, you read that right. Five figures for Dick Effing Ruthven. Now, far be it from us to throw shade, but if Mr. Ruthven’s jersey alone commands such a princely sum, then the entire uniform ensemble of all-time hits leader Pete Rose must be worth $100,000!

And here it is in the flesh—all original, all appropriate, and in all its polyester glory. Rose’s size-42 jersey is highlighted by a chain-stitched swatch reading “42 79 1” (size, year, set number) and a flag tag for “SET 1 1979.” The size 34 pants showcase a faded Rose signature on the left outside trim. The cap exhibits vintage sweatband stains and another faded signature atop the brim. Excellent condition overall. For his part, Charlie Hustle went 3-for-5 in this uniform, rapping out a double, stealing a base, scoring a run and knocking in a run. See, who says the clothes make the man?!

Superb provenance comes in the form of an LOA from authenticator Phil Wood, as well as an LOA from the original purchaser Thomas J. Whitman, who recounts the detailed back-story: “I originally worked as an extra for the Philadelphia Phillies as a helper when I was in 7th grade. I met Jack Donnelly, who was there for 40 plus years as the Left Field ball guy who would have a catch with the Phillies left fielder, Greg Luzinski when I was there! I cut his lawn and he asked me if I would be interested in helping out? It was an awesome experience for a 14 year old boy. They would bring us in on Promotional Days. When the Phillies wore the Burgundy Uniforms for weekend games they turned out to be not so popular with fans, so the team decided to sell them for $200 each and give the money to charity. I put in $200, my life savings at the time, and requested Greg Luzinski’s uniform. When the box came in the mail from the Phillies organization, I was at first disappointed, when I opened it up and it was Pete Rose’s! I was a big fan of the ‘Bull.’ Then everyone told me I was the luckiest guy around to get Pete’s uniform!!

Mr. Donnelly was nice enough to take the uniform to Pete Rose and have him sign it for me. I was really fortunate! I had the uniform framed and it hung in my home or business wherever I lived or worked for the past 42 plus years. It has been an honor to own such a great piece of history.”

413. 1958-1962 Hartland Baseball Statue Better Grade Near Set of (15/19) Opening Bid $750.00

414. Hartland Original Mickey Mantle Unassembled Mold (LE #1/25)
Any original Hartland mold would be cause for collector celebration. But the Mick? The premier prestige statue in the production? And limited-edition #1 to boot? It doesn’t get any better than this!
An accompanying 2001 Hartland COA reads, “Hartland Collectibles, L.L.C. proudly certified that this unassembled statue of Mickey Mantle numbered 1/25, was one of the final 25 shots obtained from the original Hartland Plastics mold. Hartland further certifies that following the final shot, the mold was struck and retired and that no additional shots were or will ever be taken from this mold.” Dimensions are approximately 20” long x 14” wide, and the set includes two caps, two faces (one detached), two bodies, two arms and two bats. There’s a marker notation of “7/16/01 - 1 of 25.” NM condition. Opening Bid $900.00

632. Ray Schalk’s 1955 Hall of Fame Induction Day Signed Ball (16 Signatures) with Cy Young, Frank Baker, Joe DiMaggio - Schalk Family LOA, Full JSA

Only three times in Cooperstown history have the Baseball Writers’ Association of America (BBWAA) inducted a 4-man Hall of Fame class. It last happened in 2015, and before that you have to travel all the way back to 1955, when Joe DiMaggio, Ted Lyons, Dazzy Vance and Gabby Hartnett got the nod. They were joined by Veterans Committee selections Home Run Baker and Ray Schalk in what became the most highly attended HOF Induction Ceremony since the museum’s grand opening in 1939!

Presented here is Schalk’s own baseball that he signed and passed around to his fellow inductees and other attendees that very day. The shellacked, medium- to-heavily toned “Official League” ball averages “6-7” autograph strength for the key, identifiable signatures of Schalk, DiMaggio, Lyons, Hartnett, Baker, Cy Young, Joe McCarthy, Cal Hubbard, Warren Giles, Frank Frisch and Ford Frick. It’s dated from Cooperstown on the Baker panel, “July 25th 1955.”

Accompanied by a handwritten Schalk family LOA from Ray’s niece, which reads in part, “What year did Ray go into Hall of Fame? Aug? I know dad & his brother Walter went...I got a postal & then a program/bookend etc. from dad from Cooperstown telling me of the event. I know Ray made the effort to get that ball signed by as many as he could for dad.” Full LOA from JSA as well.

694. 1929 Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Others (On Reverse) Signed Album Page - Full PSA/DNA
Of course the legendary pair would occupy the front side of the page, set apart from their lesser-known teammates on the back. Of course Ruth would take center stage above Gehrig with the bolder, more prominent signature. These telling details are a microcosm of the Murderers’ Row era, when Yankee spring training first put St. Petersburg on the map. The crisp, tanned, 4-3/8” x 6” album page displays minimally EX condition. Ruth is a strikingly dark “9” example, while Gehrig rates “7-8”. Battery mates Shawkey, Bengough and Pennock feature “9-10” strength on the reverse. Full LOA from PSA/DNA.

718. Striking Babe Ruth Signed 8x10 Original Photo - JSA “9”
Ruth was an autograph artiste. Just look at the curlicue flair of his T, the undulating n’s, the capital-style lowercase e’s, the bulbous B, the loopy R, the cross of the t that always crosses the h. Such elegance and beauty. This fine, JSA-graded “9” example is personalized to “Ann” and ideally located against the light background for maximum visual contrast. The studio-quality, thick-stock, matte-finish, sepia photo has wonderful Type I image clarity right down to the individual hairs by Ruth’s ear, the shadowed teeth in his mouth, and the crow’s feet around his eyes. A few subtle, errant lines on the brim and face appear to originate from the negative and are not part of the surface emulsion itself. Full LOA from JSA. Opening Bid $2500.00

937. Rare 1960-1961 San Francisco 49ers Jumbo 15”-Tall Promotional Bobblehead Doll
In case you missed it, here is the most valuable of all nodders sold at auction in late 2019 for a record-shattering $90,000! That was the finest of three known Yankees jumbo examples—the only baseball team represented in the 15” promotional size. It was consigned by a descendant of the Japanese family that co-owned the distributor, Otagiri Mercantile Company, which evidently produced 5 or fewer jumbos for each of the 14 NFL teams. Several times we’ve had the pleasure of selling Colts examples for upwards of $10,000, but this is the first 49ers rarity that we’ve handled. Condition of the bright, bold beauty would be Near Mint except for some cracking on the left shoe’s side and bottom. There are completely intact original decals of “NFL” (shoe), “Japan” (underside) and “FORTY NINERS” (chest). About twice the height of standard nodders, jumbos are even more susceptible to the general wear and tear that come from practical usage and long-term storage of these delicate 60-year-old collectibles. No such unfortunate fate here. This one is worth its weight in gold. Eureka!

1014. 1938 Nile Kinnick Signed Autograph Album Page - JSA Graded “8”
Just the 5th Heisman Trophy winner in history, Iowa’s Nile Kinnick presciently closed out his acceptance speech with these words: “I’d like to make a comment which, in my mind, is indicative perhaps of the greater significance of football and sports emphasis in general in this country. And that is I thank God I was warring on the gridirons of the Midwest and not on the battlefields of Europe. I can speak confidently and positively that the players of this country would much more, much rather struggle and fight to win the Heisman award than the Croix de Guerre.”

Little did anyone know that this golden boy—who eschewed an NFL career in favor of law school!—would soon join the Naval Corps Reserve and wind up dying in a training mission flight at the tender age of 24. Numerous honors followed, including his Hawkeye uniform number being retired, his charter induction into the College Football Hall of Fame, and the renaming of Iowa’s hallowed gridiron as Kinnick Stadium. These days, the Cornbelt Comet’s legacy is such, and his autographs are so sparse, that even an album page, index card or cut signature can sell for upwards of $5,000.

This bold, confident example, featuring a dramatic flair on the final “k” that extends all the way to the edge, has been officially graded “8” by JSA. It dominates the approximately 5-1/2” x 4-1/4” page, which displays as VG-EX with a tiny edge tear. There is additional light scattered spotting on the opposite side along with Eagles fullback Frank Emmons’ signature. Full LOA from JSA.
