THE FOREMOST IN AUTOGRAPH AUTHENTICATION

MAXIMIZE THE VALUE OF YOUR SIGNED MEMORABILIA
Welcome to Huggins and Scott Auctions, the Nation’s fastest growing Sports & Americana Auction House. With this catalog, we are presenting another extensive list of sports cards and memorabilia, plus an array of historically significant Americana items. We hope you enjoy this.

VERY IMPORTANT: Due to size constraints and the cost factor in the print version of most catalogs, we are unable to include all pictures and elaborate descriptions on every single lot in the auction. However, our website has no limitations, so we have added many more photos and a much more elaborate description on virtually every item on our website. Well worth checking out if you are serious about a lot! WEBSITE: WWW. HUGGINSANDSCOTT. COM

Here’s how we are running our October 22, 2020 auction:

BIDDING BEGINS: Friday October 9, 2020 at 12:00pm Eastern Time

We describe and photograph each item in the most clear and easy to understand way possible. However, WE LOVE QUESTIONS! Call us anytime at 301-608-0355. Always leave a message if you get our machine. It’s always the first thing we check everyday.

REGISTRATION:
You must pre-register to bid. You can do this over the phone at 301-608-0355 or online at www.hugginsandscott.com. Should you choose the online method and have any problems, please call us for assistance. Our normal business hours are Monday-Friday 10-6pm EST. Weekends by appointment only.

Once registered you will need to confirm your email address by following the link in the confirmation email that is automatically sent to your email address that you register with. At the time of registration, you will create a User ID and Password, that you are responsible for; you will use that same User ID and Password every time you log into our site for this and all future auctions. Bidding is done online or by telephone. ALL TIMES ARE EASTERN TIME

3-STEP BIDDING PROCESS:
STEP 1) Initial Bids

NOTE: our countdown clock on each lot is synchronized by Network Time Protocol to eastern time. The clock is set to reach 0d 0h 0m 0s at 11:30pm eastern time, which is when the lot would end if no additional bids are placed on the lot. If you have not bid on the lot, you will need to place your first bid by the time the countdown clock reaches 0d 1h 30m 0s. If you have any questions, please ask in advance!

You must place an acceptable, initial bid on an item by 10:00 pm on the night the item ends, in order to proceed to STEP 2. A way to check if your bid was accepted is to go to “My Bid List”. If the item you bid on is listed there, you are in. You can now sort your bid list by which lots you hold the current high bid for, and which lots you have been outbid on. IF YOU HAVE NOT PLACED A BID ON AN ITEM BEFORE 10:00 pm EST (on the night the item ends), YOU CANNOT BID ON THAT ITEM AFTER 10:00 pm EST, in the extended bidding session (STEP 2). However, at 10:00 pm on October 22nd, if you are the only bidder on an item that ends that day, that item will close and you will be declared the winner. We cannot stress enough; you will want to get your bids in early. For example, once you get your catalog, if you were to place a bid (even if you get outbid by another bidder) on every item that you are interested in, you are good to go and will be allowed to bid at the end of the auction, without the possibility of being shutout.

STEP 2) Extended Bidding Session
Between 10:00 pm and 11:00 pm is our “extended bidding session”. This period of bidding is getting you ready for the end. You are welcome to continue placing bids on any item that you have previously bid on, but you may not jump in on a new item during this time.

STEP 3) Unique Auction Ending Style
Now adopted by most major auction houses; You’re Welcome! Years ago, for some unknown reason, most other auction houses adopted the procedure to end entire auctions all at one time. Our way is much more bidder friendly. Here’s how it works: Bidders have our catalog for roughly two weeks prior to the auction’s end, giving them ample opportunity to place an initial bid before 10:00 pm on the item’s end date. Lots will then begin closing at 11:00pm on their respective end date. If only one bid has been received and the clock strikes 10:00pm, the lot will officially close and the lone bidder will be declared the winner. If there have been two or more bids on a particular item, that item will remain open until 30 minutes have passed without any additional bids on that item. A 30-minute timer is provided for each lot and will be automatically reset every time a new bid is made on that lot. If you up your own high bid in the last 30-minutes, the 30-minute clock will NOT reset. This is now available in real time on our website. You will want to hit the “REFRESH” button on your computer as the clock counts down, as our system will not automatically show an increase in bids. Bids on items will continue to be accepted between 10:00 pm and 11:00 pm from any bidder that has bid on the item prior to 10:00 pm (Extended Bidding Session). Based on these rules, no lot with two or more bids prior to 10:00 pm can close prior to 11:30 pm ET.
This format accomplishes two very bidder-friendly things: it pre-automatically wins the lot at 11:00pm.

b) If Bidder A was the only bidder on Lot 420 at 10:00 pm, he 11:57 pm, giving Bidder A another 30 minutes to raise his bid.
Bidder B bids again at 11:27pm, the new end time for Lot 420 is before 11:30 pm, Bidder A will win the auction. If, however,
Bidder A was the high bidder on Lot 420. If no one else bids
5 minutes later, the auction will end.

Here are some examples:

a) Two bidders named A & B are the only two who have bid on Lot 420 prior to 10:00 pm on the day that the lot ends. Only Bidders A & B can bid on Lot 420 after 10:00 pm. At 11:00 pm, Bidder A was the high bidder on Lot 420. If no one else bids before 11:30 pm, Bidder A will win the auction. If, however,
Bidder B bids again at 11:27pm, the new end time for Lot 420 is 11:57 pm, giving Bidder A another 30 minutes to raise his bid.
No other auction lots are affected by A & B’s bidding on Lot 420.

b) If Bidder A was the only bidder on Lot 420 at 10:00 pm, he automatically wins the lot at 11:00pm.

We are sure that once you read and use this bidder-friendly Auction Ending style, you’ll appreciate, as we do, that it is just “a better mousetrap.” However should you have any questions about this procedure, PLEASE call us: 301-608-0355.

A few examples for those of you that may not understand:
a) If an item has an opening bid of $200 and does not have a bid, you can click on the drop box and you have the option at bidding $200, $210, $220, $230, $240, $250, $275, $300, $325, $350, $375, $400, $425, $450, $475, $500, $525, $550, $575, $600, $625 and so on.

b) If an item’s bid currently stands at $1800, your options for bid-ing are $1900, $2000, $2100, $2200, $2300, $2400, $2500, $2600, $2700 up to $10,000 and then $10,250, $10,500 and so on.

Let’s say an item currently stands at $750. You enter a max bid of $850 and the system comes back and says that you’ve been out-bid and the current bid is now $850. Simply, this means that the other bidder’s max was also $850, that they placed BEFORE YOU PLACED YOUR BID, and one more bid will make you the current high bidder. You can enter the next acceptable bid of $875 and you will be the current high bid.

PAYMENT OPTIONS
We accept personal checks, business checks, money orders, bank checks, wire transfers and cash. We WILL accept PayPal for auction items (click “PAY NOW” on your invoice). CREDIT CARDS ONLY ACCEPTED THROUGH PAYPAL FOR AUCTION
WINNINGS!

FOLLOWING THE AUCTION
We will send winning bidders an email as well as written invoices the week following the auction. Payment is requested within 15 days from the end of the auction. Extremely late or non-payments may result in the revocation of bidding privileges for future auctions. Please note: when you bid on an item, you are entering a legally binding contract, indicating that you will pay for your items, plus the buyers’ premium and any additional associated fees (sales tax, shipping, insurance, collection agency fees, etc...). You are responsible for any and all bids placed with your User ID and password. We WILL sell your debt to a collection agency if you fail to make payment.

NOTE: Our consignment contract gives the consignor the option at withdrawing his items from the sale if they have not been paid for within 90 days of the end of the auction. If you, the winning bidder, do not pay your invoice in full within 60 days of the end of the auction, we can void your purchase(s) and return the items to the consignor. You will also be responsible for all legal fees and collection fees incurred by Huggins and Scott in attempt to obtain payment from you. We will not only revoke your bidding privileges, but we can also release the details of the failed transaction to other major auction houses.

MORE ABOUT OUR AUCTION
1) All items are sold AS IS to the highest bidder

2) Buyer’s Premium and Sales Tax - Please note our BUYERS PREMIUM is 23% of the hammer price. This means if an item sells for $1000, the winning bidder will pay ($1230.00 plus shipping, handling and insurance). This is added to the item before any sales tax (6%), which is applicable to all Maryland residents ONLY! Note: a 3% Buyer’s Premium discount for all payments by check, cash, money order or wire transfer.

3) No one who is currently employed with Huggins and Scott or House of Cards may bid on any items in any Huggins and Scott Auctions. However, the auction house and its employees may consign items to the auction.

4) “Items With Reserves” feature slightly modified!
We have expanded and modified the “items with reserves” feature for this auction. Now, the items with reserves are noted with a red outline around the lot and the words “ITEM WITH RESERVE” heading above the lot. They will also appear in the appropriate category section based on the item. The reason we have started this is to allow us to offer more unique and special items, while also giving our consignors the assurance that the items will at least reach a certain minimum. All items with reserves will have an opening bid and an estimated value range.

The reserve bid on any item will never be greater than the low value in the estimated range. By starting the bidding below the reserve price it will allow our bidders to get their initial bids in prior to the 10:00pm cutoff time for “initial bids” on the final day of the auction and then all eligible bidders can decide what they want their final bid to be on that day. The items will have a statement in the bid box on our website saying either “Reserve Not Met” or “Reserve Met”. Those two phrases should be selfexplanatory. If you are entering a ceiling bid on one of these items and your ceiling bid exceeds the reserve, the computer will only take you to the value that equals the reserve. The remaining amount of your ceiling bid will be kept hidden to everyone but you. If the item ends with the “reserve not met” the item will be deemed “passed” with a zero sale price. We are trying to make this a simple and easy-to-understand feature in our auction; should you have any questions, concerns or comments on this new venture, we welcome your feedback.

5) Shipping - Cost is the buyer’s responsibility. We will work with you on larger lots to find the best way. All items must be fully paid for, including shipping and insurance, before they will be sent out.
We strongly encourage any local bidders to pick up their winnings at our Office or at the House of Cards.

BIDDING INCREMENTS:

| $50 - $249   | $10.00  |
| $250 - $999  | $25.00  |
| $1,000 - $9,999 | $100.00 |
| $10,000 - $24,999 | $250.00 |
| $25,000+     | $1,000.00 |

We have expanded and modified the “items with reserves” feature for this auction. Now, the items with reserves are noted with a red outline around the lot and the words “ITEM WITH

items, while also giving our consignors the assurance that the items will at least reach a certain minimum. All items with reserves will have an opening bid and an estimated value range.

International bidders should contact us prior to sending payment to discuss specific shipping options.

6) Return Policy - ALL LEGITIMATE RETURNS OR CREDIT REQUESTS MUST BE BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTION WITHIN 30 DAYS OF RECEIPT OF YOUR ITEMS! AFTER 30 DAYS, THERE ARE NO REFUNDS, EXCHANGES OR CREDITS! ALSO, THE ENTIRE LOT MUST BE INTACT AND IN THE SAME FORM AS WHEN IT WAS SOLD IN ORDER TO RECEIVE ANY CREDIT OR REFUND CONSIDERATIONS - NO EXCEPTIONS!! We have conservatively graded most items, however we strongly encourage you to ask specific questions or better yet, come view the items you are interested in. If you are unsure of anything, ask, then bid. We reserve the right to make any changes from the print catalog on our website. Any changes that are made, we will notify all who have placed bids on that item by email.

7) Bidding Privileges - Huggins and Scott LLC reserves the right to revoke any bidder privileges for what we deem as unethical behavior.

PLEASE NOTE: Once a bid is placed, we CANNOT retract it. We have two safeguards to make sure that you are aware of the bid that you are placing, and which lot you are bidding on. Bid retraction will result in cancellation of all bids in the auction and bidding privileges revoked. WE CANNOT COMPROMISE THE INTEGRITY OF THE AUCTION BY CANCELING BIDS.

8) Previewing Items Before the Auction - All items are available (unless noted in the item's online description) for viewing at our auction office: 2301 Broadbirch Dr. Ste 150, Silver Spring, MD 20904. Calling in advance for an appointment is strongly SUGGESTED. We ask that you provide a list of the items that you want to examine, so we may have them ready for you.

9) All bids are in US Dollars!

10) When we refer to a population report about graded cards, we only reference the population of that card's grading company. For example, if we say an SGC card has three equals and none better, we are only referring to that card's population among all SGC graded cards, unless otherwise stated. All population counts are valid as of the time of writing and are subject to change.

About Our Autographs:

All autographs sold thru Huggins & Scott Auctions come with either a JSA- James Spence Authentication (our most used), PSA/DNA, Upper Deck Authenticated (UDA), Stacks of Plaques, Kevin Keating, Mounted Memories, C.A.S., Beckett or Steiner COA’s. Some even have more than one. At Huggins & Scott, we take great pride in only offering “IRONCLAD”, “LEAD PIPE”, “NO QUESTIONS ASKED” autographs. In today’s world of autopens, secretarial, clubhouse and ghost signers, you can rest assured that your autographed items from H&S have passed the most stringent examination.

Note: For those that do not know, a “clubhouse” signature was a common practice among teams where the key players would not actually sign the item, but a clubhouse attendant would sign for the player. We note any signature that is a clubhouse signature.

Multiple Autographed Item Lot LOA’s:

For the more valuable autographs, we are obtaining full photograph LOA’s from one of the respected third party authentication companies. For the lesser valued items, we are having those items authenticated and noted with a unique sticker/certificate combination for each item. In the remaining cases, on lots with more than one autographed item, we will issue one blanket auction letter of authenticity for the entire lot (although we are trying to do away with this altogether, but sometimes it is the only cost effective method). This is the original letter that we receive from the authentication company describing the offered lot. You may use this “auction” LOA to obtain individual LOA’s should you choose to do that. however the auction LOA’s are only valid for 45 days from the end of the auction. Please see the item’s description for specific authentication on each individual lot. Please call if you have any questions regarding these auction lot LOA’s.

MLB Authentication:

Due to the MLB Authentication protocol, many items that were in fact game used and verified as such by team personnel, are deemed “Team Issued” on the MLB Authentication website with numbers corresponding to those on holograms issued by MLB. While we will remain consistent with MLB’s assessments in our descriptions, several of these items are game worn as well as team issued; and they have varying degrees of use, from light to heavy.

Framed Items:

Frames included with lots: while we make every effort to protect the frames included in these lots during pre auction storage and post auction shipping, we are not responsible for any damage to the frames themselves, and no refunds will be given due to frame damage.

About Our Grading:

Many lots, throughout the auction have been Professionally graded and encapsulated by independent grading companies. Many other lots have been graded by our highly educated writers. For the most part, these are conservative grades, but we are human and sometimes we may miss something. We are not responsible for a third party grading company agreeing or disagreeing with our assessment and we cannot issue refunds or credits if cards do not receive a numerical grade or the exact grade that we describe. We strongly recommend that you come look at any items that you are bidding on, and make your own determination about it's grade.

Becoming one of Our Field Representatives:

Huggins and Scott Auctions is a constantly growing company. Should you have an interest in joining our staff, we are always looking for part-time field representatives in new areas. Call our head of Field Representatives, Steve Dickler at 215-530-4365 to discuss an opportunity; its a no lose situation for you, as well as a chance to make some serious money.

Consignments For Our Next Auction:

We have already begun taking consignments for our FEBRUARY 2021 Masterpiece Auction. Consignment deadline: December 31, 2020. By consigning your items early, you allow us the opportunity to advertise your items on our website, in trade publications and press releases, as well as at major shows across the country. This is an invaluable way to expose your items to our thousands of current bidders and possible new bidders, who can then plan ahead to bid on your items. Believe me, it happens!

We are always looking for unique Americana items to try in our catalog. Even if you have something you don’t see (primarily 1960s and older, though), feel free to call us and discuss it. You may have a pile of gold that’s just hidden under a little dust, or needs the right exposure!

ALSO: We are the best major catalog auction company for newer modern insert, relic and autographed cards. Virtually every consignor has been pleased with the results for their “Shiny Cards” through our auction.

Contact one of our representatives to discuss the sale or consignments of your cards and other treasures.
The hobby lost a true original when Barrie Sullivan passed on in 2014. It’s hard to believe that over 5 years have already gone by since the influential collector and mentor to many said his goodbyes. Here was a man who ate, slept and breathed baseball; who was there on the front lines of the emerging memorabilia industry in the early 70s; who attended the very first National Sports Collectors Convention in 1980; and who proudly showed off some cards to his beloved wife Sandy on their first date! Barrie’s press pins easily represent one of the finest such collections ever assembled, let alone ever offered at auction. Highlights include iconic 1920s World Series examples like the 1923 Yankees, 1927 Yankees and 1929/30 A’s, as well as the earliest known WS “phantoms” and All-Star Game press pins. Condition is high grade across the board. “He just loved a touch of greatness,” said Kerry Sullivan of his brother’s passion for collectibles and for the national pastime. Likewise for those of us who knew Barrie and were touched by his greatness.

561. Extremely Rare 1923 New York Yankees Original Team Photo with Ruth and Gehrig (PSA/DNA Type I) - One of Two Known Examples!
Forget 1927. Let’s talk about 1923—the birth of the Bronx Bombers. It was the year that christened the House That Ruth Built. It was the first of 27 World Series championships in franchise history. It was the season Babe nearly batted .400. And it was the major-league debut of a 19-year-old Ivy League star named Henry Louis Gehrig.

On April 18, 1923, while the Bambino was inaugurating Yankee Stadium with an Opening Day homer, Gehrig took the mound for Columbia University, striking out 17 opposing batters. His moon-shot home runs caught the eye of Yankee scouts who signed him to a contract on April 30th. Come June 15th, the young Iron Horse was pinch-hitting in Yankee pinstripes and wearing the immortal number 4—his place in the batting order after Ruth. He ultimately appeared in 13 games and may have played in his first Fall Classic were it not for Giants manager John McGraw, who barred the way based on an eligibility loophole...and who still met his Waterloo anyway.

This time frame explains why only 2 of the 20 or so existing Type I examples of 1923 Yankees team photos actually picture Gehrig. Lou missed both the beginning and end of the season, when team shots are traditionally taken. Here, mid-summer, he dominates the front row, his brawny physique a stark contrast to Miller “Mighty Mite” Huggins seated nearby. Babe looms in the top row at upper right. The 7x11 shot boasts terrific image clarity and contrast. In addition to typical peripheral handling/age wear, there is a light horizontal crease that passes through the torsos of the entire standing row, as well as some image discoloration in the upper-left and lower-right corners.

It bears mentioning that any of Gehrig’s early, pre-Streak collectibles from 1923 or 1924 are exceedingly scarce. Indeed, if his 1925 Exhibit rookie card in mid-grade condition can sell for $100,000+, how long will it take before a far rarer 1923 Type I photo such as this catches up? Eat your heart out, 1927.

Encapsulated as Type I by PSA/DNA. Full LOA from PSA/DNA. Opening Bid $2500.00

934. Babe Ruth 1947 Boldly Signed Original Pencil Sketch - Full JSA, PSA/DNA
The last time this one-of-a-kind drawing reached the auction block, it sold for $2,400—and it’s easy to see why. Ruth’s poignant portrait recalls the final days of his life, when the gaunt, thin-haired, cancer-stricken legend made his final public appearances. It’s dated to the year before his death, and yet, miraculously, Babe’s signature is just as robust and dynamic as the autographs of his youth. No doubt Babe deeply appreciated the artistic tribute and mustered all his strength to execute such clean, bold handwriting. According to its past auction description, the 5x8 artwork originates with a Seattle-based female artist who acquired athlete and celebrity autographs through her friendship with Seattle Post-Intelligencer sports editor Royal Brougham, whose name still casts a long shadow in the Seattle sports community to this day. EX condition with a “9” signature. Matted and framed—in what appears to be the original, slightly weathered frame—to overall dimensions of 9x12. A matching piece depicting Honus Wagner is also offered in our auction. Full LOAs from JSA and PSA/DNA. Opening Bid $1000.00

1072. Incredible 1888 N162 Goodwin Champions Harry Beecher
Hoard of (18) Graded Cards with PSA VG+ 3.5 - First Football Card!
Move over Hunt Brothers, there’s a new cornered market in town! While debate has raged regarding what constitutes the “first” baseball card, that controversy has never approached the gridiron realm of our hobby. Harry Beecher was a quarterback and captain of the 1884-1887 Yale Football squads. The prolific scorer and two-time national champion obviously caught the attention of Goodwin & Co. of New York. With a cap, sweater and massive ball in hand, Beecher doesn’t quite look the part of a gridiron star. However, the caption of his sport and status leaves little debate. Each card in this incredible hoard of (18) 1888 N162 Goodwin Champions Harry Beecher singles has been validated by a third-party authenticator. An extensive assortment which includes the following:

- PSA Graded: (9 cards) with (1) VG+ 3.5, (3) Fair 1.5, (2) Poor 1 (one mk), (3) Authentic;
- SGC Graded: (7 cards) with (1) 30 Good 2, (1) 20 Fair 1.5, (4) 10 Poor 1, (1) Authentic;
- BVG Graded: (1) 1.5 Fair and
- GAI Graded: (1) Fair 1.5 (first graded). While population reports don’t account for crossover attempts, there is little doubt that this eye-popping selection accounts for a significant percentage of known Beecher examples.

If you watched the Last Dance MJ documentary—and, really, who in their right mind didn’t watch it?!—then you’ll know the face and trademark Kangol hat of legendary Bulls security guard John Capps. The former Chicago policeman was a fixture behind the Bulls bench for more than 50 years, appearing in the background of photos and video footage like an angel on the players’ shoulders. Capps got his start in 1966 as a police escort for the brand-new Bulls franchise in an infamous parade up Michigan Avenue featuring team owner Dick Klein, coach Johnny Kerr, marketing director Jerry Colangelo and, yes, a real live bull in a cage.

From that day forward, on up until his death in 2018 at age 88, Capps sat guard outside the locker room before games, accompanied Bulls coaches to the court, and assumed his post behind the bench. Over the decades he was an ever-present greeter and father figure to the likes of Love, Sloan, Gilmore, Jordan and Pippen. In fact, Scottie told a much-repeated anecdote in Last Dance about how Michael had ongoing friendly bets with Capps about the outcomes of races up on the jumbotron during timeouts. (True to his competitive edge, Jordan always got insider information from the arena’s video crew!)

“Capps was part of that scene when we started the Bulls,” Colangelo said upon his death. “He was there front and center. He was part of the whole picture in terms of our presentation. We felt he was a part of the team like a coach, a player. Capps was one of the guys; always did a great job. It’s the passing of an era.” John Paxson also paid tribute: “Great person and a man who would always tell you straight up what he thought. He was tough, a Marine and over the last few years he was struggling physically, but he would never let you know. Home games won’t be the same without John Capps sitting outside our locker room.”

Above all else, Capps’ legacy is defined by his membership in the elite club of Bulls personnel who were there for all 6 NBA championships (both 3-Peats)—and who thus received the complete set of all 6 championship rings. To our knowledge, no more than a handful of upper-level staff ever held that rarefied distinction, in addition to, of course, the triumvirate of 6-time champions Jordan, Pippen and Phil Jackson. We at Huggins & Scott are so very proud to now present the entire set of diamond-encrusted showpieces given to the beloved Bulls stalwart, Mr. John Capps.

1288. 1984 Michael Jordan NBA Debut Ticket Stub PSA Authentic – Only 14 Graded!

Only 14 Total Graded by PSA! With the April 2020 ESPN documentary The Last Dance, an already high demand for Michael Jordan artifacts soared higher than “His Airness” during #23’s storied career. As one of the most recognizable athletes on the planet, any mementos related to MJ are shattering previous records – and Huggins & Scott Auctions is at the forefront of offering such fine memorabilia. However, Jordan’s professional career had to begin somewhere. Passed over by the Rockets and Trail Blazers in the 1984 NBA Draft, the University of North Carolina selection was first unveiled to the sporting world at Chicago Stadium for the October 26, 1984 season opener against the Washington Bullets.

Graded Authentic by PSA due to three pin holes and reverse writing. The offered ticket stub witnessed the debut of the greatest player in NBA history. This historically significant voucher features exceptionally bold printed identifiers against a bright blue background setting. The perimeter is crisp and unchipped. The reverse is penned “Michael Jordan’s debut” in black ink with a crisp stub perforation positioned between the notation. The promising phenom scored 16 points while adding six rebounds and seven assists as the Bulls bested the Washington Bullets by a 109-93 score. While only 13,913 attended that night at the storied palace with a capacity of 17,374, they were witnesses to the dawn of a career that forever changed the landscape of basketball. The most recent Jordan debut ticket sold in our May 2020 auction for $24,900+!
